

Feltham visit Loakes Park

WYCOMBE Wanderers have arranged an interesting friendly for tonight (Tuesday) when they entertain Feltham Town from the Spartan League. The match has special attraction as Feltham won at Bracknell Town 3-1 on Saturday.

Bracknell are Wycombe's opponents in their semi-final of the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup on February 17 and spectators will have a good chance to judge the general standard of the opposition.

Recent news from Bracknell is that player-manager Iain McPhee has resigned as manager as it was affecting his individual game. He will continue as a player and their new boss is coach Dan Dalv.

Feltham are currently second in the Spartan League with an excellent record. One of their best performances this term came in the Middlesex Senior Cup when they held Hendon to 1-0 at Claremont Road — a fine achievement by any side.

Wanderers hope to give their injured centre backs Delaney and Rundle a run out and it is also thought that there may be one or two new faces in the line up tonight.

It is likely to be two to three weeks before defender Rob Williams' case comes up before the F.A. Disciplinary Committee for his three bookings. Rob had his name taken at Dulwich on August 12, at Woking seven days later and at Walton on December 30.

He successfully appealed against the Woking booking but if there is no appeal against Saturday's caution, he could face a two week suspension.
